

Planning an event?...When's the last time you had a hilarious, innovative and inspirational speaker at your conference, sales meeting, banquet, etc.?... Hundreds of thought-provoking LOLs guaranteed!

"Laughter has been shown to relieve stress and help create a productive and healthy work environment."— Businessweek

"When it comes to relieving stress, more giggles and guffaws are just what the doctor ordered."—Mayo Clinic

What if you lived in a world where your livelihood depended on being creative every day, 365 days a year, and writer's block is not an option? Cartoonist Leigh Rubin, creator of the internationally syndicated comic strip Rubes, has lived in that world for almost 30 years. How does he do it, and more importantly, how can he inspire creativity in your employees?

Through his hilarious and inspirational presentations, "sit-down comic" and professional daydreamer Leigh Rubin emphasizes the rewards of persistence and the fun of problem-solving while celebrating the joy of creativity. Leigh's fast-paced and fun-filled presentations have gained a reputation for inspiring those who attend to add a little creativity to their own lives. Leigh's goal is to inspire people to take a break from their normal routine of looking at things and to think outside the box, even though he himself has to draw inside a box.

There are health benefits of humor?...Are you serious?!

If laughter isn't the best medicine, it should be. It's impossible to OD on. It's legal. It's free. And it's available without a prescription!

Just because it's called work doesn't mean you have to be so serious about it, especially when you can achieve productive results by injecting a daily dose of humor. Let Leigh inspire your employees to find the humor by looking at the world in a slightly twisted way!

What types of events does Leigh do?

Leigh has presented to groups of all sizes, from six to six hundred! From low-tech to high-tech, whether it's a conference, corporate event or educational event... luncheons and dinner banquets, too! Whatever the event you are planning, no group is too large or too small, and Leigh will leave you feeling inspired and smiling!

Leigh explores fresh perspectives and creative problem-solving and inspires ways to look at any situation from different viewpoints. Just as there's more than one way for a chicken to cross the road, there is more than one way to solve a problem.

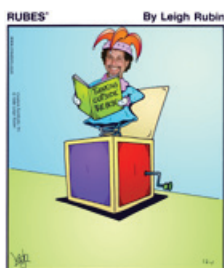

Wellness for your wallet, too!

Having an inspirational, innovative and entertaining speaker at your event shouldn't break the bank. We believe in flexibility and want to work with you to make sure your next event is a success.
